NEW QUESTION: 2
Which of the following types of deferred compensation plans is considered "portable" because employees can remove the money from the plan and convert the payment into other forms?
A. Cash balance
B. Profitsharing
C. Target benefit
D. Money purchase
Answer: A
Explanation:
Explanation: A cash balance plan is considered "portable" because employees can remove the money from the plan and convert the payment into other forms. A profitsharing plan, also known as a discretionary contribution plan, is considered to be best in a company that has highly variable annual profits. A money purchase plan offers employees a fixed annual percentage and thus is best in a company that has fairly consistent annual earnings. A target benefit plan uses actuarial formulas to determine how much an employee will receive toward retirement.
